In accordance with the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006, the employer will require new members of staff to provide documentary evidence that they are entitled to undertake the position applied for/have an ongoing entitlement to live and work in the United Kingdom. Therefore, all candidates shortlisted for interview are required to complete a declaration and to produce acceptable specified documentary evidence at interview.

I confirm that I am legally entitled to work in the UK.

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act (ROA) 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended)

Posts which involve substantial access to children are exempt from provisions contained within this Act under which the job applicants are entitled to withhold information about any previous criminal background which would otherwise be considered 'spent' under the terms of the Act. If the job for which you have applied involves substantial access to children and you have been shortlisted for the post, you will be provided with a form on which you will be asked to disclose any convictions, cautions, reprimands or final warnings that are not "protected" as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended in 2013) by SI 2013 1198. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found at the Disclosure and Barring Service website.

If you are the successful applicant you will be provided with an Enhanced Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) application and consent form. Failure to complete this form will result in your application not proceeding any further. The possession of a criminal record will not automatically debar you from consideration for the post for which you have applied. Any information given will be treated as confidential and will only be used in relation to the post for which you have applied.

I agree that the appropriate enquiry may be made to the Disclosure & Barring Service or successor body.
